The past year has meant a lot to me. I have enjoyed many great times with old and dear friends, as well as making many new ones. Being a senior has made this year extremely special to me, and I hope that through the work put into this annual we all can keep a grasp on the memories of the past year.

The members of the annual staff have worked hard to bring you the best annual Wills Point High School has ever had. We hope you enjoy this annual, and in the coming years of your life we hope it brings back memories of the days you spent in the halls of Wills Point High School.

Sincerely yours,

James Yaws

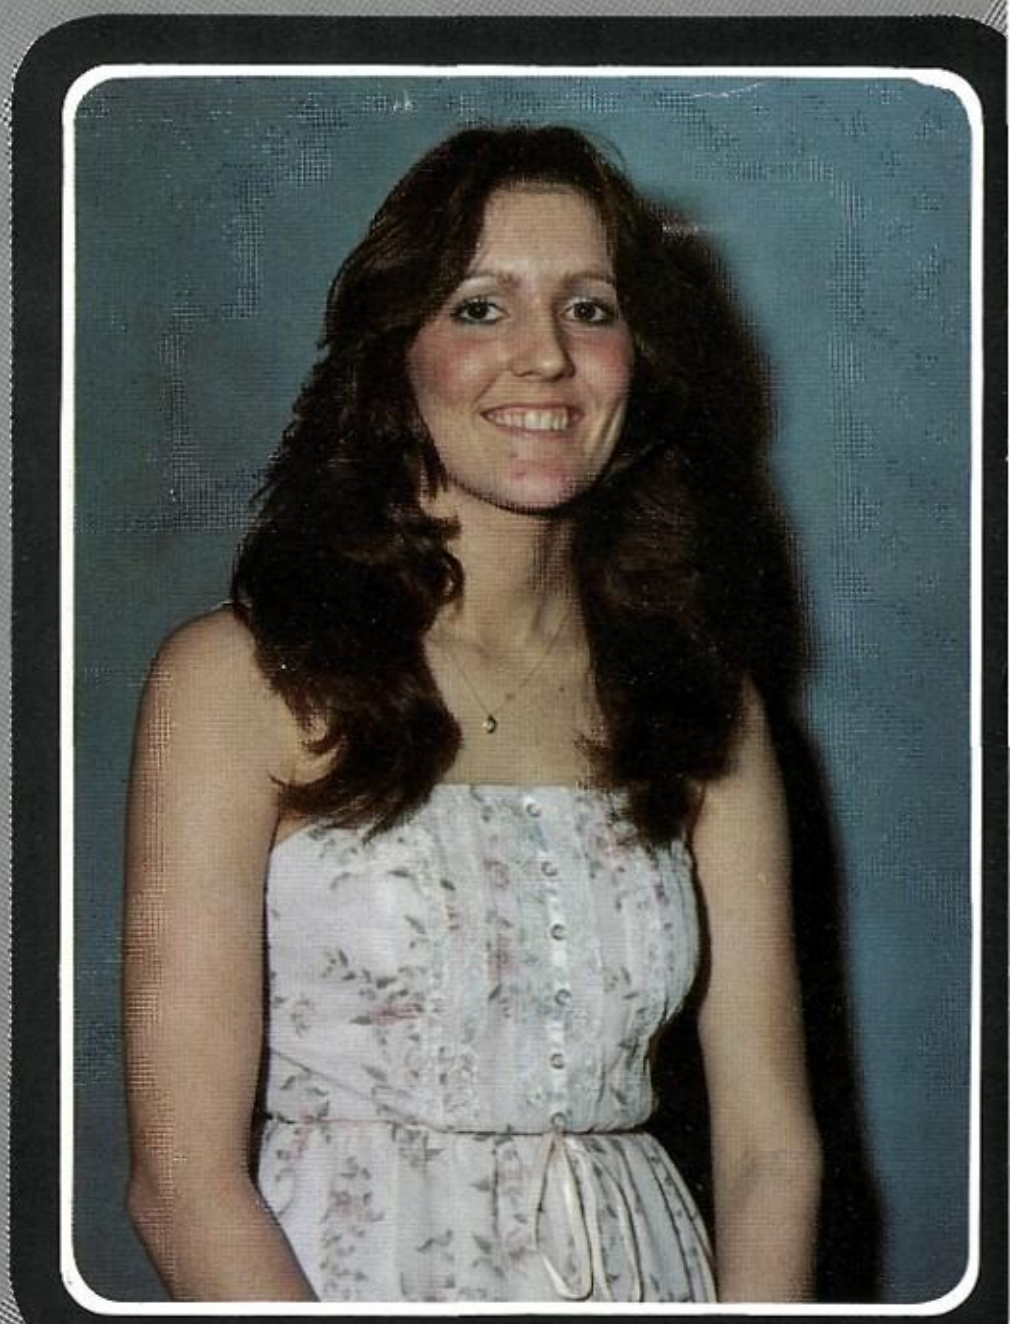
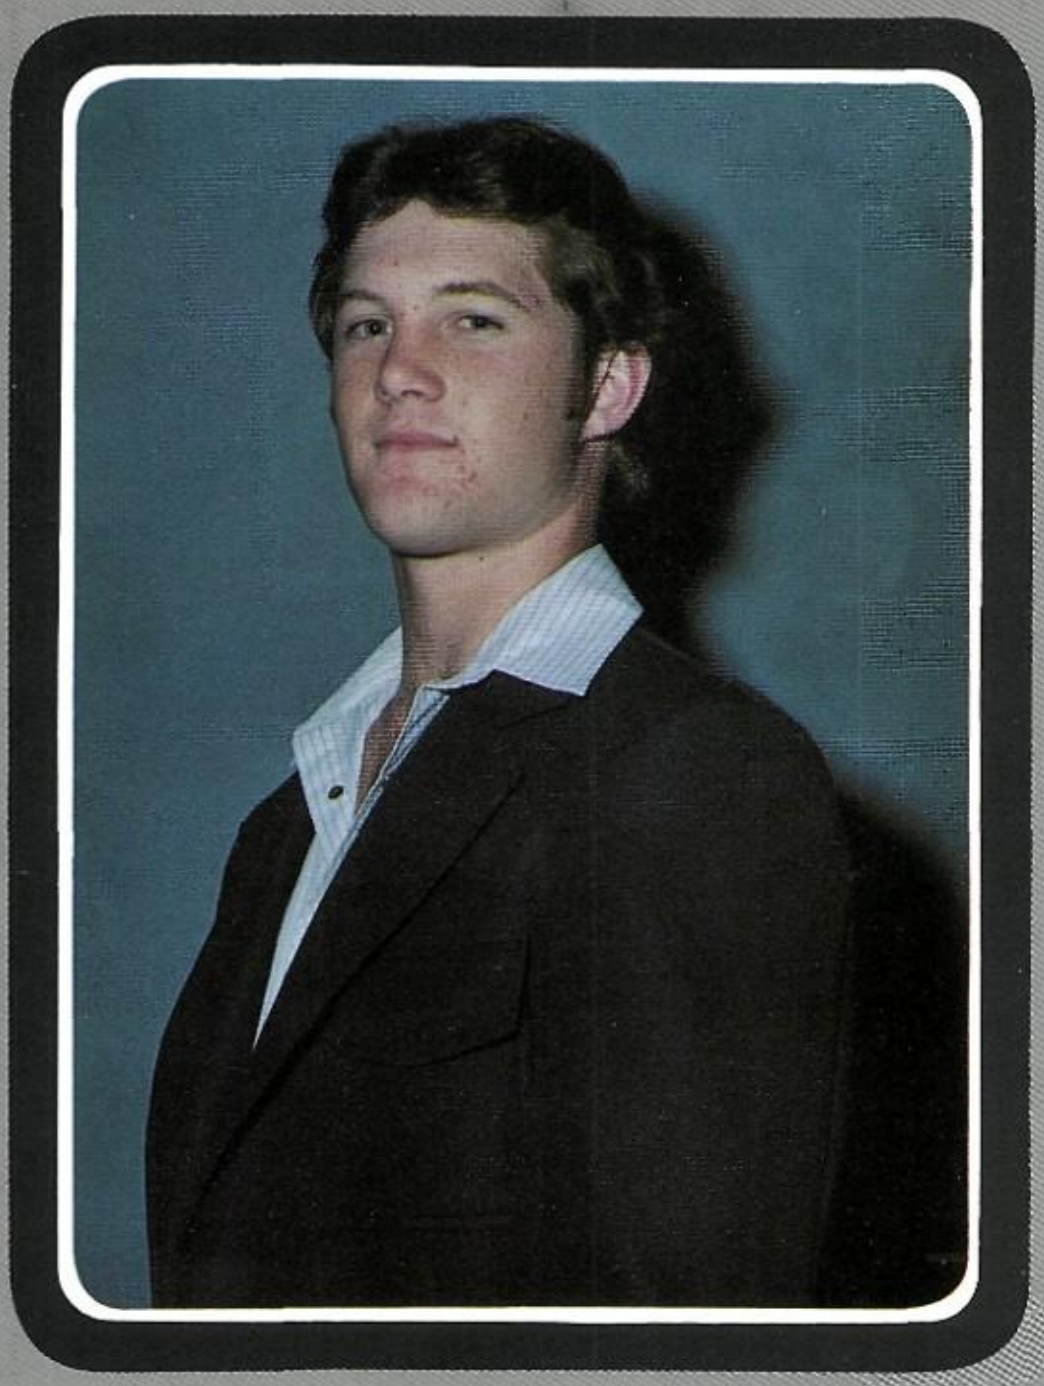
Mr. W.P.H.S.
Kyle Anderson

Monday, January 12, 1981 was the sixth annual Annual Preview Night. The stage was beautifully decorated and excitement was in the air. The tension mounted as it came closer to the naming of Mr. W.P.H.S. A round of applause was heard as senior football player Kyle Anderson was named Mr. W.P.H.S.



Miss W.P.H.S. — Sandy Everett

Four excited young ladies along with an anxious audience awaited the naming of Miss W.P.H.S. The girls had never looked nicer than they did on this particular night. Their faces beamed with excitement as each one of them was introduced to the audience. Everyone was pleased to learn that senior cheerleader Sandy Everett had been chosen by her schoolmates as Miss W.P.H.S.

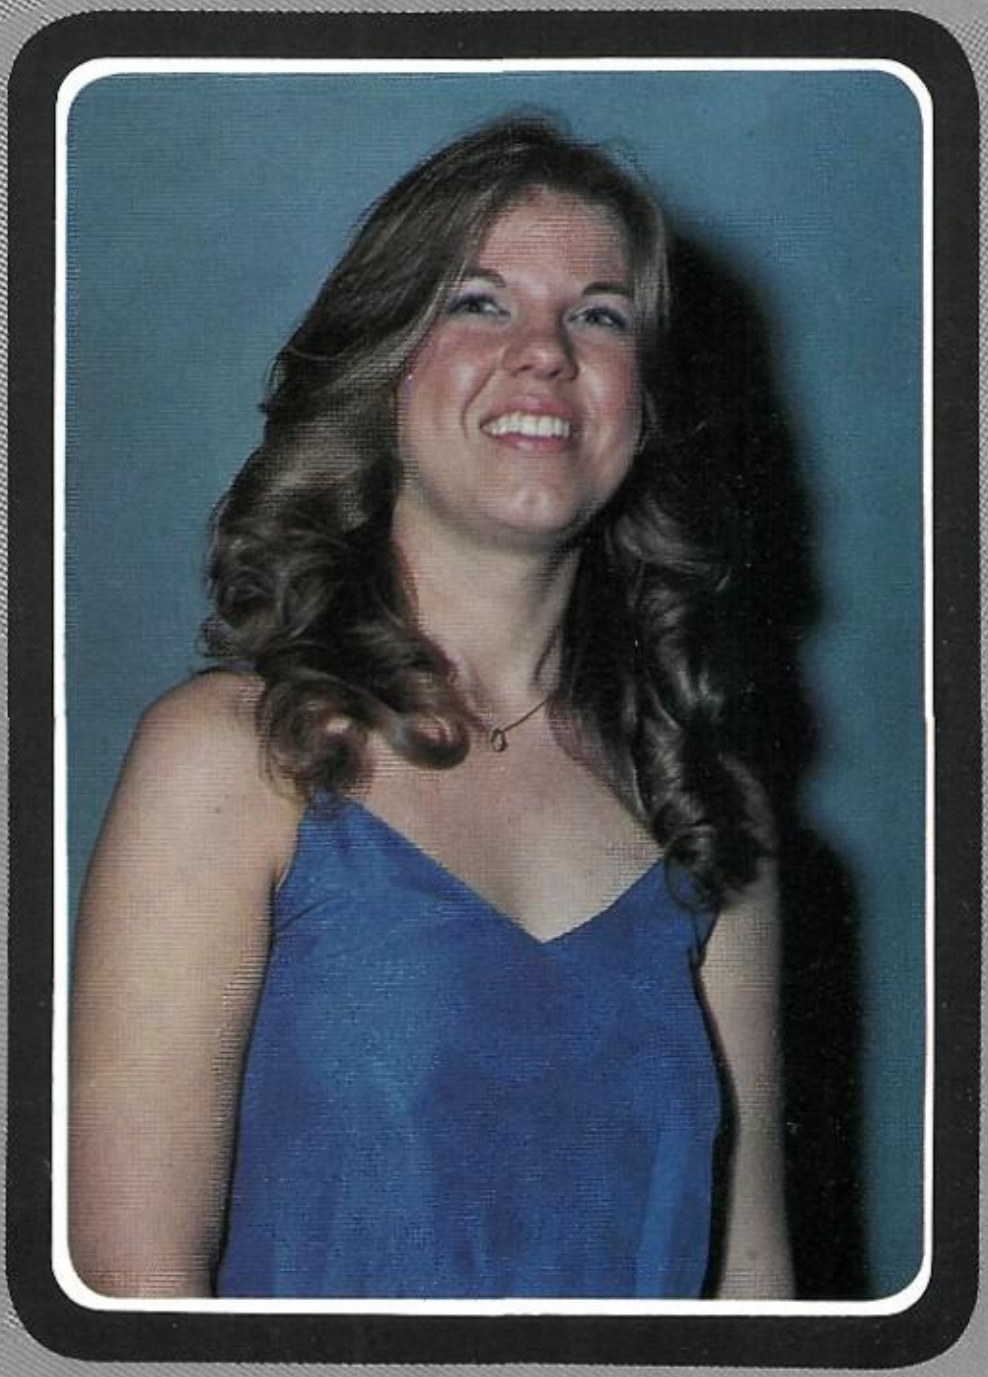


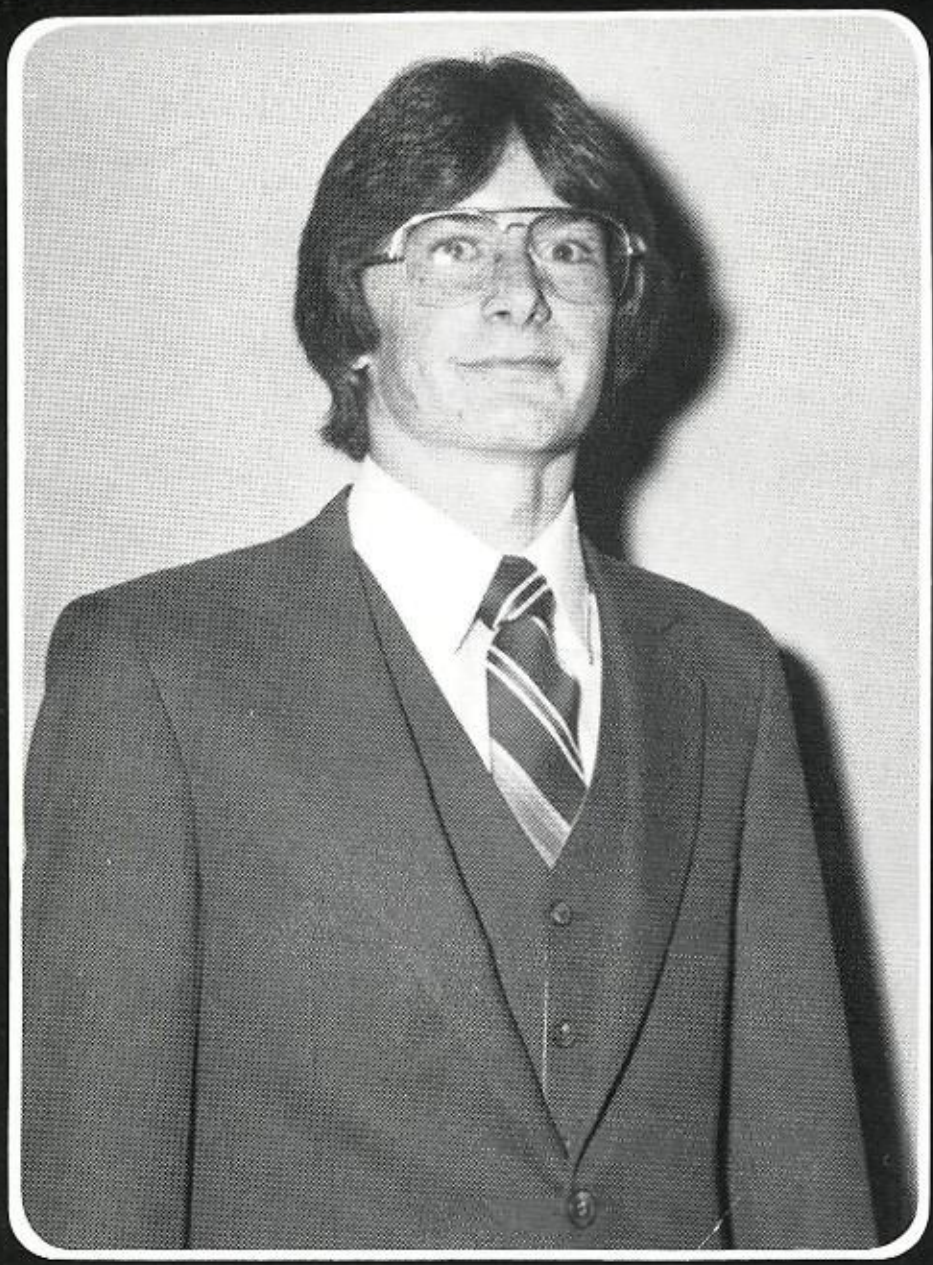
Most Handsome — Keith Foreman

Dressed in their suits with their hair combed to perfection, three young men vied for the title of Most Handsome. Whispers could be heard backstage as to who would be the winner. The general feeling was you could not go wrong with any of them. There was not a happier person than senior Keith Foreman when he was named Most Handsome of W.P.H.S.

Most Beautiful — Kim Ballard

With three lovely young ladies like Kim Ballard, Marti Scott and JoAnna Cawthon, the competition for Most Beautiful was indeed keen. There was much speculation as to who would receive the title, but no one could be for sure. The question of who was Most Beautiful was answered when James Yaws, the master of ceremonies, announced that the student body had chosen Kim Ballard.



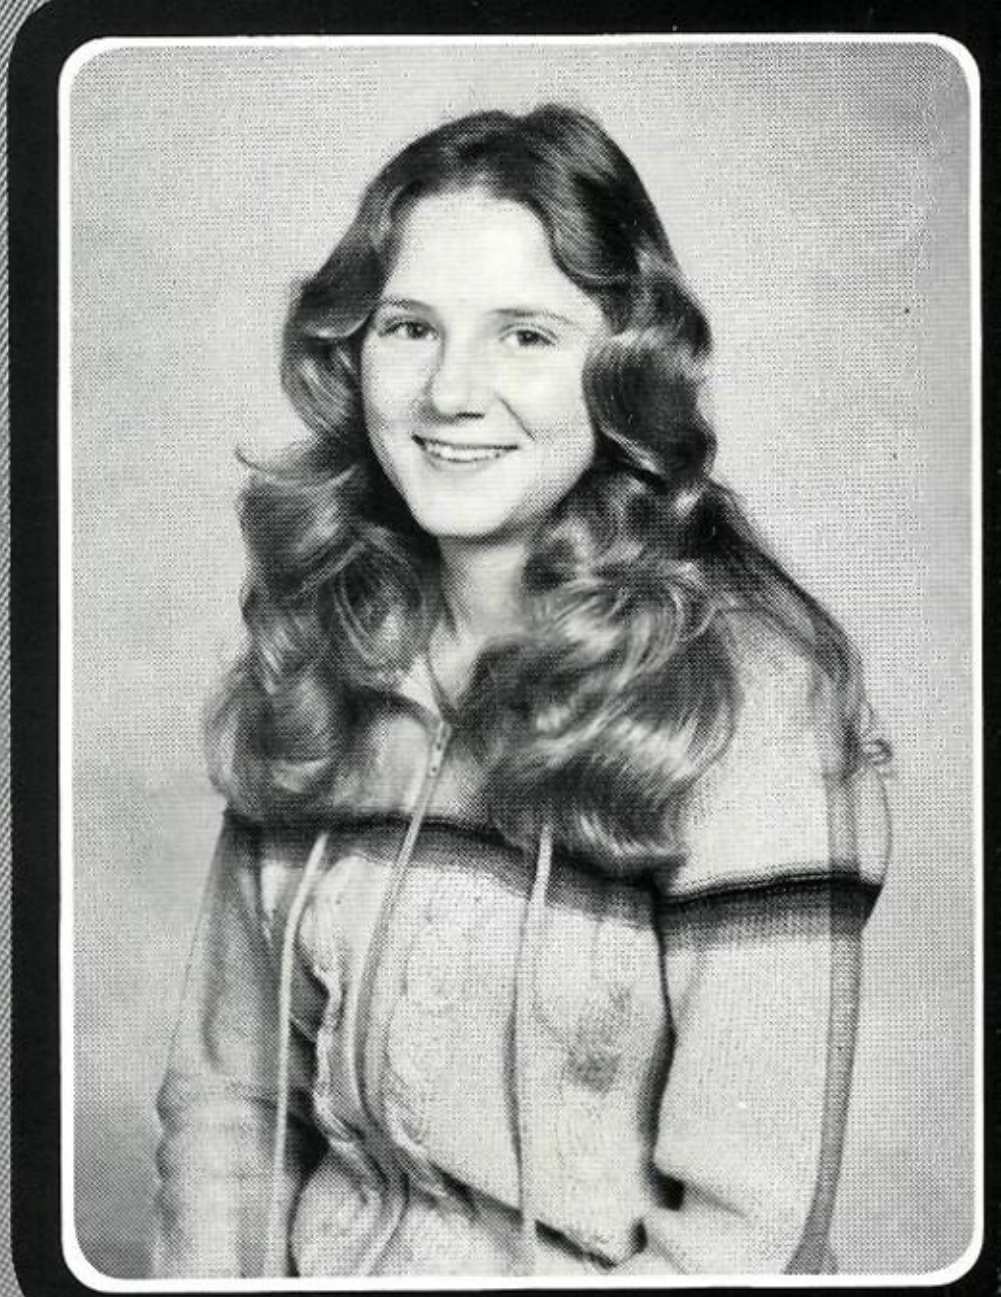


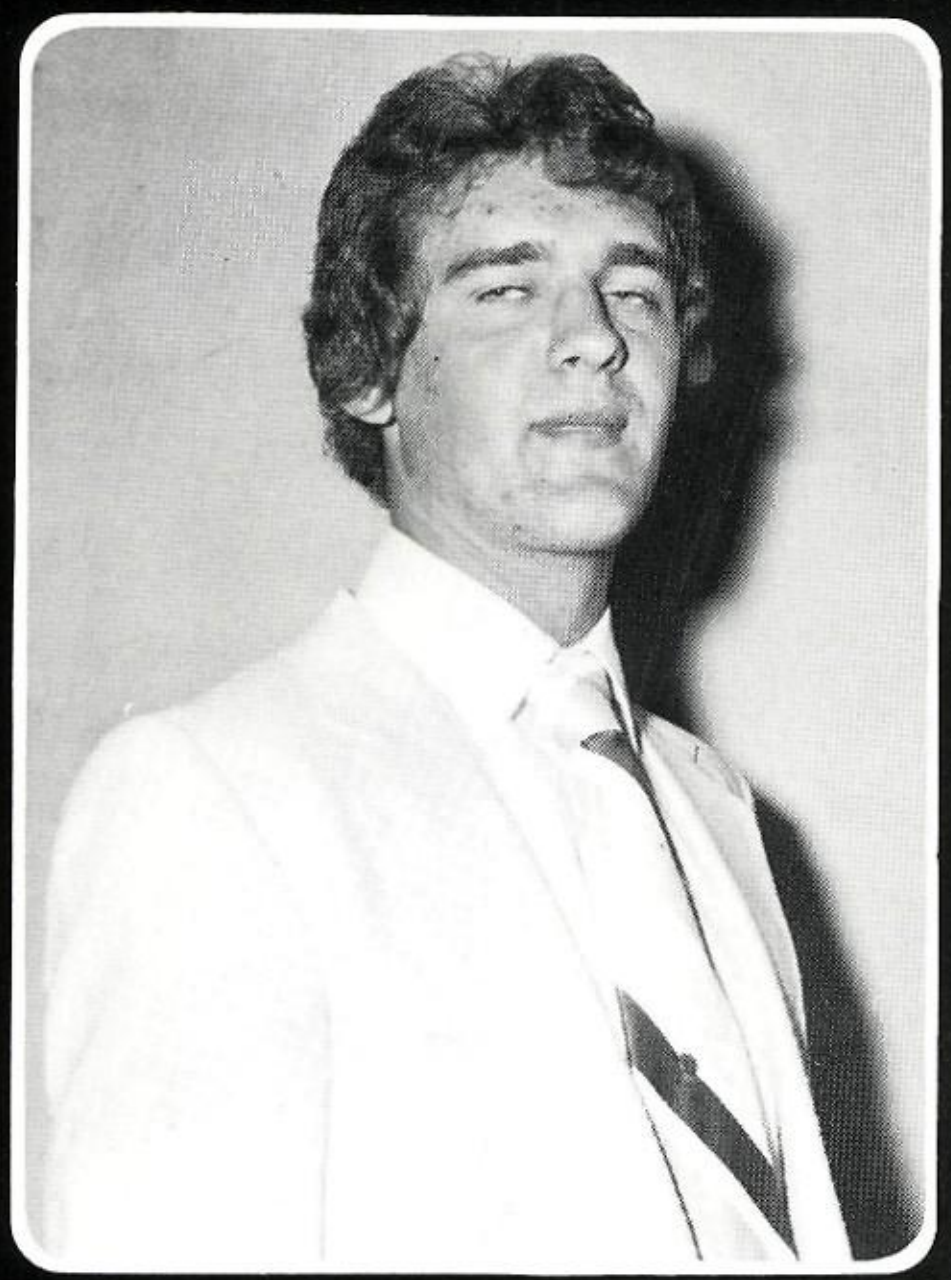
Most Likely To Succeed Girl — Cindy Havenhill

Bright, enthusiastic, opinionated, out-spoken and friendly — all of these describe Cindy Havenhill. Unfortunately, she was sick on Annual Preview Night, but she was as thrilled as she could be when she was called and told that she has been selected as Most Likely To Succeed. It was an honor Cindy was proud of and thankful for.

Most Likely To Succeed Boy — Greg Buckmaster

In competition with John Comer and Scott McLemee, Greg Buckmaster was honored to be selected by his schoolmates and friends as Most Likely To Succeed. Greg is an outstanding young man with much potential and a bright future to look forward to. He was well deserving of the title.



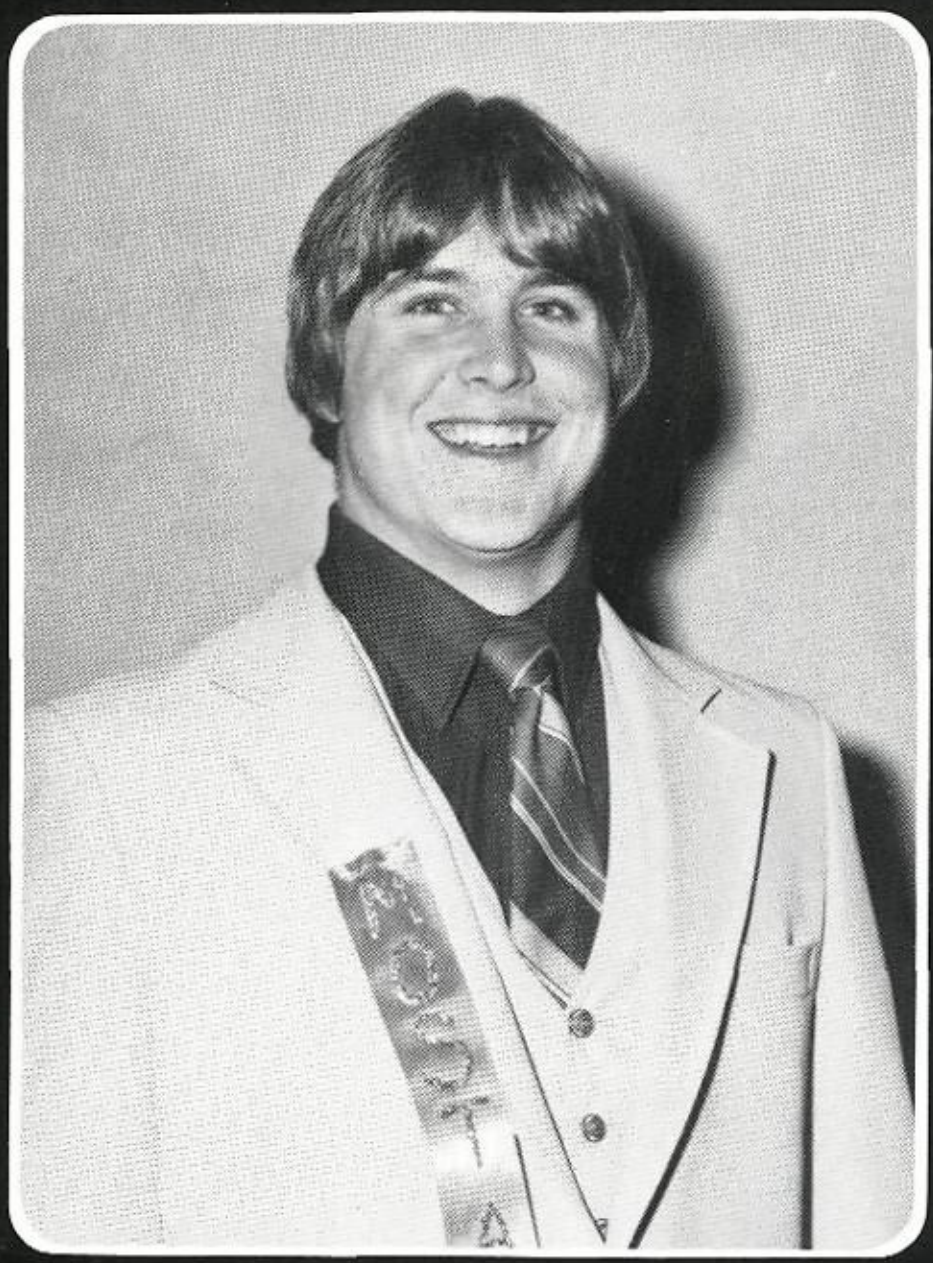


Friendliest Boy — Charlie Ellis

With a smile always on his face and a warm "hello" for everyone, Charlie Ellis was a natural choice for Friendliest Boy. Charlie is one of those persons who goes out of his way to be friendly to everyone and makes the school brighter with his genuine friendliness and beaming smile. His smile was a little bigger upon learning he had been chosen as Friendliest Boy of W.P.H.S.

Friendliest Girl — Marti Scott

No one was more surprised or happier than junior Marti Scott when she heard her name called as the winner of Friendliest Girl. Marti's sparkling personality glowed as she came forward to receive her ribbon, rose and kiss. She was indeed a happy young lady.



Most Active Boy — Rusty Hogan

No one was surprised when senior Rusty Hogan was named as Most Active Boy. Rusty was involved in most of the activities that were available to him at W.P.H.S. He was a football player, trackster, FCA member, HECE member and volleyball beau. He could always be seen at the school activities and was always eager to lend a helping hand.

Most Active Girl — Lisa Kaye Powell

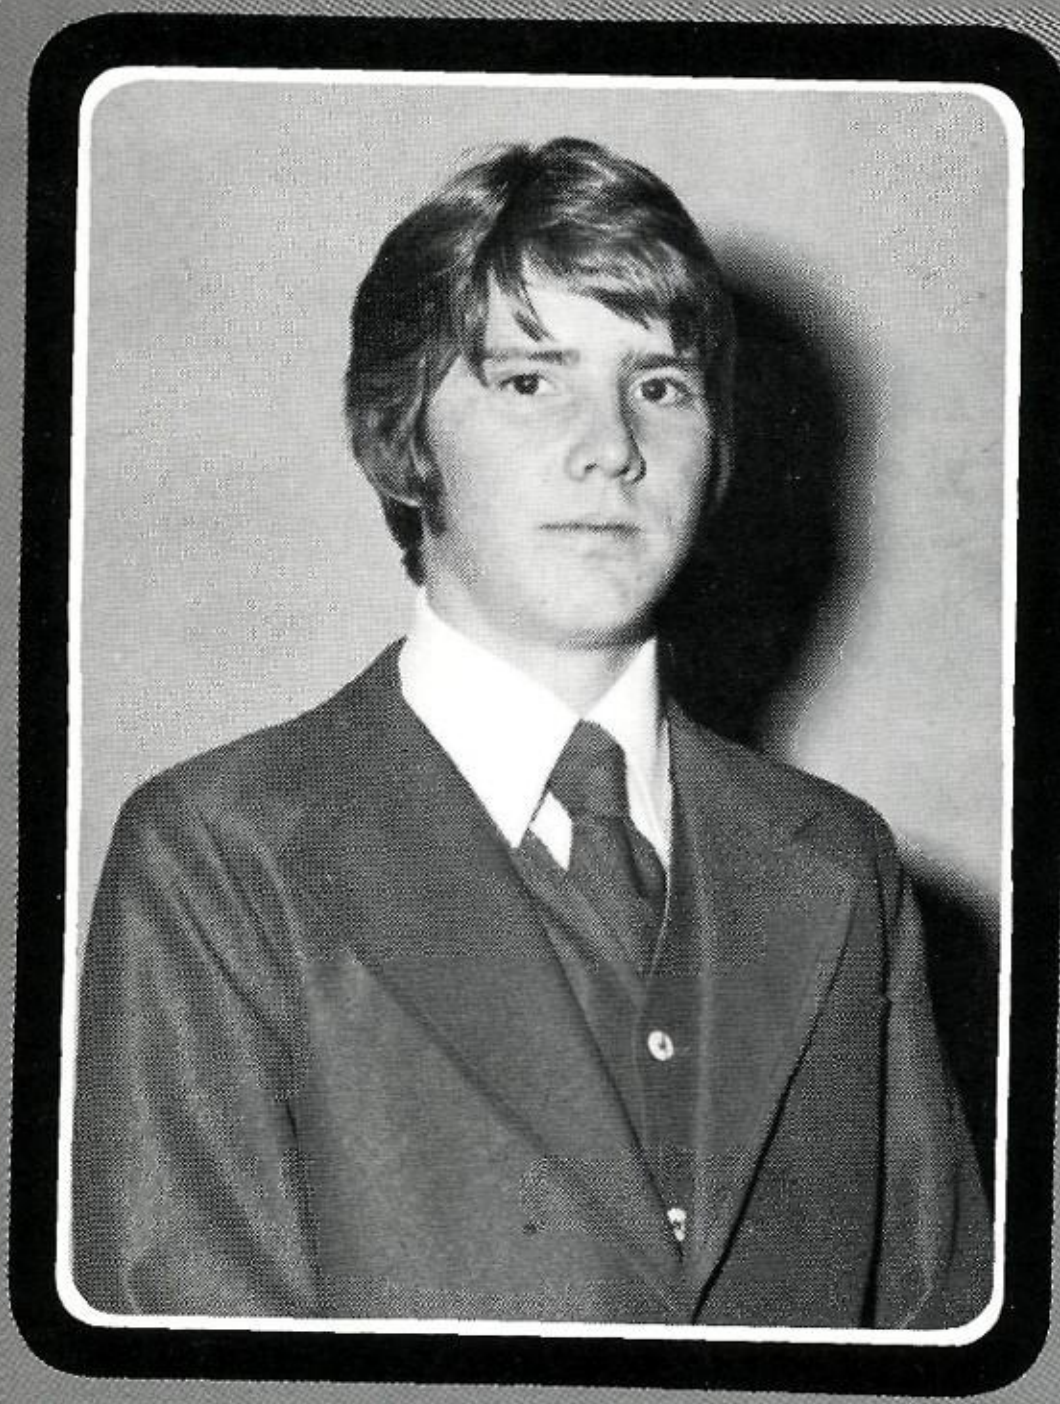
Lisa Kaye Powell, Marti Scott and Susan Mattox were all nominated for Most Active Girl. All three were involved in their school life and devoted many hours to W.P.H.S. They could be seen at all the various activities that took place at school. It was a difficult decision for the student body to name one of them as Most Active, but a good choice was made when they chose Lisa Kaye Powell.

Most Feminine — Julie Nabors

With poise, grace and style Julie Nabors gratefully accepted the title of Most Feminine. Taking great care to always look her best, Julie was an excellent choice for this honor. Not only did Julie strive to look her best outwardly, but she worked to be right inwardly. She gave true meaning to the words Most Feminine.

Most Athletic — Damon Davis

His outstanding feats on the football field made junior Damon Davis a natural choice for Most Athletic. Damon participated not only in football, but also in track and he put forth his best effort in both sports. It was a proud moment for Damon when he received the award of Most Athletic.

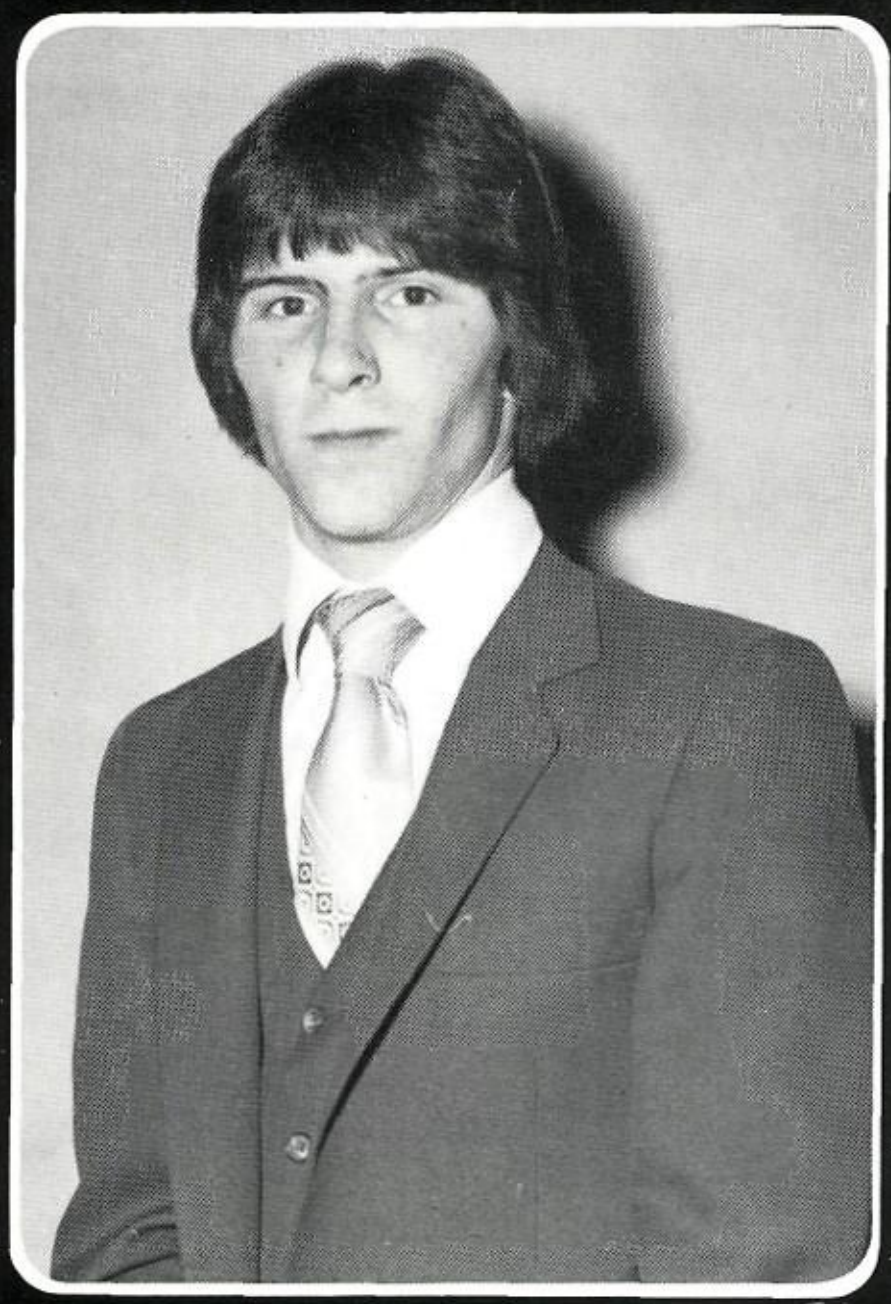


Best All Around Boy — Gerald Perry

The teachers chose Best All-Around from members of the senior class. The decision was based on scholarship, attitude and citizenship. The young men nominated for this honor were: James Yaws, Jed Herrin, Keith Foreman and Gerald Perry. The boy chosen as Best All-Around was Gerald Perry.

Best All-Around Girl — Susan Mattox

The teachers nominated as Best All-Around Girl: Carol Rommell, Sandy Everett, Cindy Havenhill and Susan Mattox. Because of her excellent grades, helpfullness and citizenship the teachers chose Susan Mattox as Best All-Around.



Wittiest Girl — Vicky McCormick

Her sense of humor was more subtle than Willy's, but Vicky McCormick was an obvious choice for Wittiest Girl. No one ever had a dull moment around Vicky. Her good sense of humor and vibrant personality made Vicky a favorite with the students of W.P.H.S.

Wittiest Boy — Willy Wood

With three "class clowns" like Merle Hendrickson, Keith Shinn and Willy Wood, no one would have been surprised or disappointed at any of them being chosen as Wittiest Boy. These three guys seem to stay awake at night thinking of pranks to pull and jokes to tell. Everyone, including Merle and Keith, was proud when Willy Wood was announced as the winner of Wittiest Boy.

Homecoming at WPHS 1981

It was a beautiful night and the excitement could be felt in the air. Five young ladies, four seniors and one junior, had earlier in the week been selected by the student body as Homecoming Duchesses. The girls were very pretty as they were escorted across the field by their proud fathers. The duchesses were: Kim Ballard, Sandy Everett, Holly VanDerAue, Melissa Howard and Marti Scott. As the band softly played, football announcer, Bob Brown, told the fans that junior Marti Scott had been selected as Homecoming Queen. Marti was presented a bouquet of roses and a crown by the student council officers, Cindy Havenhill and Julie Jones.

Assistant Drum Major

There has been a definite change in the twirlers' appearance this year. Not only do we now have a drum major who twirls, but also an assistant drum major who helps direct the band on the field and at pep rallies. The twirlers have added much excitement to the halftime shows.

To Halftime Activities

Four young ladies — Debbie Bodin, Melinda Shahan, Sheryl Buckmaster, and Melinda Ford — returned to the WPHS Twirling Line. Joining them for their first year are Kim Durham and Kim Madden. They were Selected as Most Spirited Group at Stephen F. Austin Twirling Camp. They have carried this spirit into the halls and onto the field of WPHS.

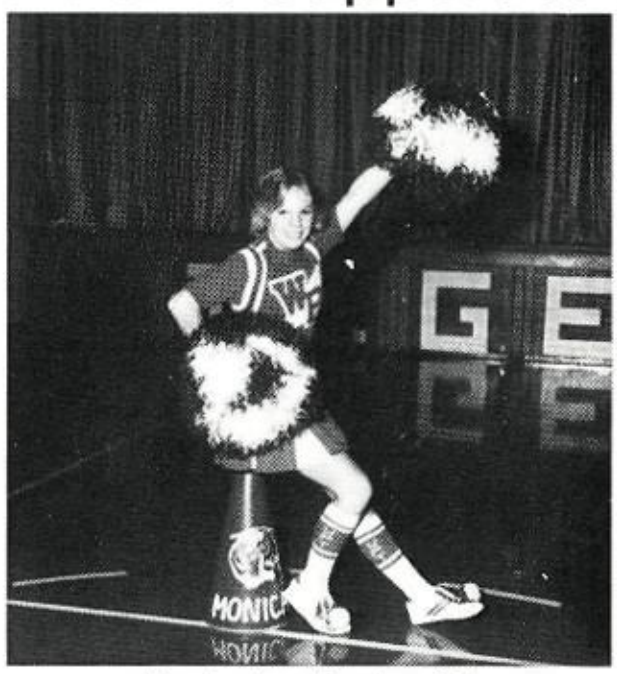
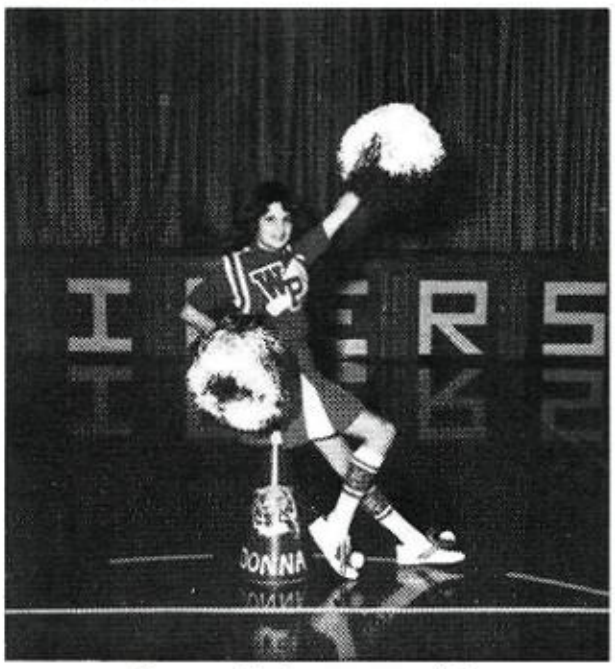
Cheerleaders Give Support to Teams

Netta Everett — 8th Head



Monica Langford — 8th



Donna McLemee — 8th

Tonia Rodden — 7th

This year five young ladies eagerly awaited the beginning of the school year. They were the Jr. High Cheerleaders and they were looking forward to a year of fun-filled activities. They had pep rallies to plan, football and basketball games to attend, posters to make, locker decorations to make, break-throughs to make and practice, practice, practice. The year was no disappointment. It was everything they hoped for and more. The 1980-81 school year is one these girls will long remember.

Top left: Coach Martin gives spirited talk at a pep rally.

Middle: Mrs. Ford helps a troubled student.

Top right: Mrs. Petillo gets caught taking the last bite of Mrs. Chitty's lunch.

Center: Mrs. Moorehead is the only person that laughs at "Koach" Davis' jokes.

Silence —
Engulfing everything,
As typewriters cease to type,
As a once spirit-filled gym
Becomes just an empty room,
Bearing faint reminders
Of the vibrant spirit that existed within.
Abandoned coke cups,
Shreds of faded pom-poms,
Parts of an encompassing atmosphere —
A solitude —
All surrounding
A hurried signature,
'Best wishes in future. Love . . .
Final touches to an
Askew cap and billowing gown —
The end?
No.
Now they are memories . . .
But this year was more,
More than just a school term.
It was the reason for our
Living,
Our having fun,
We sought answers from it,
Defended our loyalties with it,
Most of all
We Created, existed, and remembered,
The special way of life it brought —
This is yours and mine.
Tiger Style?
Yes.
For this was our
Year '81
